INTRODUCING CLOUDMARGIN

2021 | The new CloudMargin brand

CLOUDMARGIN PURPOSE

CloudMargin exists to change the lives of those who manage collateral in every institution, across every instrument in every corner of the market by democratising access to our powerful, purpose-built technology. Automating and always innovating their often complex and fragmented workflow, we bring efficiency to every aspect of collateral management – for everyone.

CLOUDMARGIN VALUES

Technically Straightforward.

We keep things streamlined, simple and get straight to the point – efficiency is at the heart of everything we do. Always uncluttered. Never underestimated. Our innovation and driving spirit should never go unnoticed. Clearly.

Positively Committed.

Evolving, innovating and pioneering – for everyone. The industry has always followed our lead and our clients look to us to keep them one step ahead. We drive positive change. We push forward adding clarity where once there was chaos.

Seriously Fun.

CLOUDMARGIN “ONE” MANIFESTO

One automated, single-instance, cloud-native platform that never stops evolving. One industry-leading technology pioneer – always challenge solving. And it’s one solution for all – trusted by the biggest banks to the smallest firms; as well as other technology partners who were once our competitors.

We exist to bring the entire industry together – once and for all. Everything we do is focused on making collateral management easier, smarter, safer and faster for everyone. We drive automation, centralisation, and connection to increase efficiency and reduce both your risk and costs.

We design workflow tools and technology that streamline operations and enhance democracy. And we deliver a best-in-class customer experience and service with empathy and transparency. Our all-in-one collateral management platform is second to none.

And when it comes to updates and improvements it’s one for all – providing Tier One technology to all tiers of institutions. End-to-end. Day-to-day. Minute-to-minute.

There is only one collateral management solution that you need that is truly built with everyone in mind.
